About This Survey

We are conducting an important survey of election workers who were hired for New Mexico's November 7, 2006 general election. It is important that we survey those who were trained to work at the polls on Election Day. Our goal is to learn more about your experience as a poll worker and to identify any problems that arose in your training or on Election Day.

Your participation in this survey is voluntary and your responses will remain completely confidential. Your responses will be used to help us understand the voting process and to inform policy makers about best practices.

If you have any questions about the survey, you can contact Thad Hall, Assistant Professor of Political Science at the University of Utah at (801)585-7344.

In accordance with federal regulations that govern academic research, the above named researchers have submitted this survey for review and received approval from the Institutional Review Boards (IRB) at their respective universities. The IRB reviews the materials to ensure that risks to participants involved in research are minimized. If you have complaints about this survey that you cannot resolve by contacting the above named researchers, please contact the University of Utah Institutional Review Board Office at (801) 581-3655.

Instructions

1. Please thoughtfully respond to each question.
2. When you are finished, place the survey in the provided envelope.
3. Mail your completed survey to:
